LETTER FROM BOB MAYNARD

With the start of the new year, we turn our thoughts to all of the upcoming events and activities we will sponsor during 2019. We will be announcing some of those dates after Simon attends the regional board meeting in February. This year we will add a few new events, such as guest speakers at our monthly meetings, and a possible meeting at the Lingenfelter Performance Center! This will provide everyone with an opportunity to enjoy his great collection of performance cars, and an opportunity to meet Ken Lingenfelter and his Team. I'm sure with all of the various activities planned for 2019, that there is something for everyone to enjoy, and I look forward to a very happy and event filled New Year.

Respectfully,
Your President,
Bob Maynard

CORVETTE NEWS ARTICLES & INFORMATION

Today it's clear that tradition is essential to the Corvette ethos. But younger, more adventurous customers will be needed to keep the flame burning. A mid-engine layout will allow more possibilities, including special editions that will climb even higher up the performance and price scale. Although the C7 Stingray and its evolutionary descendants will surely live on for several more years, the mid-engine C8 will soon arrive to give Corvette customers a second choice. Painted with drops of leaked information from a GM Deep Throat, our rendering of the forthcoming C8 is no mere guess. In Ferrari style, the mid-mounted V-8 will be proudly visible under the rear hatch.

Here's what the mid-engine Corvette C8 will look like

Our insider information reveals crucial details of GM's upcoming supercar.

2018 CHEVROLET CORVETTE Z06 ESSENTIALS: STUNNER

What is it: Corvette Godfather Zora Arkus-Duntov developed the first Z06 in the early '60s hoping to give his sports car drivers an advantage. An option package, it had better brakes and a bigger fuel tank so it could make fewer pit stops. Only 199 were built. Fast-forward 50 years and the Z06 is its own model. Until about five minutes ago the car's 650 hp, 650 lb-ft and $80K sticker put it atop the Corvette heap. Of course, the ZR1 just arrived, boasting 105 more hp, 65 more lb-ft, and a $121,000 sticker price. A base Stingray costs about $56,000 with 460 hp, so there's enough Corvette variety here for dang near everyone.
